

1981 Canada Cup

The 1981 Canada Cup was an exciting tournament with a shocking ending, with the USSR defeating Canada in the final game by the score of 8-1. I had the privilege of attending four live games in Winnipeg during the round robin, including an incredibly exciting 4-4 tie between Canada and Czechoslovakia and three of the Soviet round robin games. I decided to attempt to create the six teams in the tournament and I hope you enjoy reliving it. The Soviets introduced to the North American audience the KLM line during this event, along with a revitalized Tretiak, and for the first time we also got to see Slava Fetisov in his prime. For Canada, it was the first real glimpse of Wayne Gretzky, Ray Bourque and Mike Bossy in an international setting, all playing together. All of the teams are competitive, with perhaps Finland still struggling.

Just a few notes: I have added three players for each team to account for possible injuries; you can use them if you like but they may have an impact, especially for the Czech squad as I added all three Stastny brothers, who were only absent due to defection to North America. For the Soviets I added blue-liner Sergei Starikov, speedy forward Helmut Balderis and the missing Golikov brother. For Canada, Bill Barber, Jim Schoenfeld and Mike Gartner. On most teams, I tried to add players that were in their training camp.

I have play tested the set a few times with good results. Each team will perform fairly realistically.

Enjoy!

Michael Owens
