74th Grey Cup: Hamilton 39, Edmonton 15

It was a year of change in the Canadian League in 1986. The league reduced the preseason and added two games to the regular season, for an 18 game regular season. Due to the East having sent subpar teams to the playoffs over the past few seasons, the league also adopted a new playoff format. The change made it so that a fourth place team in one division could make the playoffs if they had a better record than the third place team in the other division. However, this is not like today's "crossover" provision. If a 4th place team qualified for the playoffs, they'd stay in their division, and all four playoff teams in the division would play in the semifinal round (4 at 1, 3 at 2). The two teams in the other conference would play a two game total points series, playing one game on semi final weekend, with the return match during the weekend slotted for the conference finals. The first place team had a choice of whether to host first or go on the road first (Toronto elected to go to Hamilton for the first week so they could host the second game). This format would only last one season due to Montreal not participating in the 1987 season. Other changes include kickoffs being moved from the 45 to the 35 and End Zones being reduced from 25 yards to 20 yards.

I have created this season with the help of Keith's how-to guide for Second Season football, plus the adjustments he suggests for Canadian play. If you believe I have made an error, or have a suggestion, feel free to reach out to me as well. The documentation available for past Canadian seasons isn't always as detailed as I'd like it to be, especially for depth charts for defences and O-Lines.

I have included finder charts for those who use them. I have tried to make these as accurate to the real statistics as I could, although every so often, it was difficult to be as precise as I wanted to, as teams didn't always do things that rounded nicely into 20! Sometimes I've included the names of multiple players on one die result, this needed to be done to make the percentages work out. Sometimes I had a lot of players with 1 of a particular category (usually sacks or interceptions), and adding all those players would mean reducing one of the top players' percentages, so I've included Choice as an option instead of adding 5 or 6 names to a die result. It shouldn't affect the way the top stars accumulate statistics. For this season, I have also added positions instead of individual players when it was obvious that, due to smaller rosters and the Canadian ratio, only one player per game would appear in a given position, especially at RB.

I have also added a set of Appendixes to this document, as there were quite a lot of personnel changes that weren't easy to document on the team sheets. I did my best to document as many things as a player may find interesting, but I can't promise complete accuracy, as data from this timeframe isn't exactly the easiest to find, and my source for newspaper archives currently does not have Toronto, Hamilton, or Winnipeg newspapers. The appendixes will at least point you in the right direction.

There is also an instant results finder chart for those gamers that like doing single team replays. Thanks again for taking the time to download my season, and please let me know if you enjoy it!

This table is based off of Keith's finder charts that he has created to simulate games quickly, which is useful for single team replays.

To use the chart, find the home team on the left, and find the visitor at the top. Roll both dice, and read them as you would for a play

If the dice roll is within the range listed, the home team wins. If the dice roll falls outside this range, the visiting team picks up the win.

If the dice roll is exactly what the last number on the win range is, the game goes into overtime.

Roll the dice again and consult the Overtime chart for the home team. If the dice roll falls within the range, the home team wins.

If the dice roll falls outside the range, the visiting team wins. If the dice roll matches the last number of the OT range, the game ends in a tie.

Appendix B – BC Roster

BC QB

Start Roy Dewalt. Cowan is your backup until after Game 7, when he goes to Toronto. Watson takes the backup role at that point.

BC RB

If the RB for the game is injured, give John Henry White a * on his rushing grades and move him to RB. Jenkins is the starter for games 1-13, except games 6-7, which are covered by Ray Crouse. Anthony Parker takes over from Game 14 to the end of the season.

BC EA

Ned Armour starts the year, as Jim Sandusky recovers from a preseason injury. Sandusky returns for Game 3. Ned Armour also starts Game 14.

BC SA

John Pankratz is injured for Game 1, and Scott Lecky takes his spot. Pankratz returns in Game 2.

BC SB

Jan Carinci starts 16 of 18 games, and is out for Game 9. Scott Lecky replaces him for Game 9 and starts Game 16, with Carinci available as a backup.

BC EB

Mervyn Fernandez is injured in Game 2, and is replaced by Ned Armour until Game 10, when Fernandez returns. Armour is never a backup, he's either a starter or out of the lineup. Scott Lecky is the primary backup to all receiving spots.

BC GA and GB

Both starters sit for Game 15 and 16, play the listed backups. Jamie Buis stays in the lineup at GB for Game 17.

BC TB

Bryan Illerbrun starts the season, and Jim Mills takes over after the first half of Game 10. Illerbrun is traded after the game.

BC A

Darnell Clash starts the first 9 games. Andre Francis starts the last 9 regular season games. Darrell Slater starts the first playoff game. Francis is back for the second playoff game.

BC C

Andre Jones starts the season. Nelson Martin takes over after Game 6.

BC F & H

Both starters are out for Game 18. Marty Palazeti and Gregg Stumon get the starts in their only action of the year. Stumon also starts the first playoff game at H and Bernie Glier starts the second.

BC K

Mike Gray misses the opener, and Bennie Jones starts in his place. Gray is back for Game 2.

BC Kicker/Punter

Lui Passaglia misses the first three games. Paul Osbaldiston does the placekicking the first three games, and the punting in game 3. Mervyn Fernandez did the punting in game 1 and 2 before being injured, and Osbaldiston took over. Passaglia takes both roles after game 3. Jan Carinci handles kickoffs after game 3.

Appendix C – Calgary Roster

Calgary RB

Dwight Beverly starts games 1 and 2, and Gary Allen takes over in Game 3. Game 6 is started by Freddie Sims, then Allen starts for the rest of the season, but gets hurt in Game 18. Tim Petros plays RB for the first playoff game.

Calgary FB

Greg Fieger starts the season here, and Ryan Potter is added to the roster after Game 4. Tim Petros appears to get the starting nod for Game 4, and has the job locked up by Game 7, for sure. Fieger ends up as a backup slotback. Ryan Potter plays FB for the first playoff game.

Calgary SA

Marshall Toner starts 17 games. Jay Christensen starts game 16 due to an injury to Toner. Larry Willis plays here for the first playoff game due to ratio shuffling.

Calgary EB

This one's a mess. Tag Rome started the season, and Jamie Harris took over in Game 6. Tag Rome gets another shot in Game 12. Tony Woodruff takes over in Game 13. Larry Willis gets the Game 18 start. Woodruff gets the first playoff game.

Calgary TA

Dave Kirzinger starts the season here. He is out for Game 2, and is replaced by Sean McKeown. Kirzinger returns for Game 3. He is traded after Game 8. Rob Smith moves over from GB to take over this slot.

Calgary GA

This one bounced around a bit, and was hard to follow based off of newspaper accounts. Randy Ambrosie started at least the first two games, Tom Spoletini seems to have gotten the lion's share of the work, and Sean McKeown seems to have started Games 10 and 11. If you're not worried about the details, you can go with Spoletini and not worry about it.

Calgary GB

Rob Smith starts the season here. After Game 8, George Gilbert slots in here as Smith moves to tackle after Dave Kirzinger is traded. Games 13 through 15 belong to Sean McKeown. George Gilbert is back for Game 16.

Calgary J

Eugene Belliveau starts the season here. James Walker takes over in Game 5 due to an injury to Belliveau, and stays for a while, even when Belliveau returns from injury. Belliveau takes over for Game 9 in a ratio move tied to the offensive line shuffle. Dave Ponder starts Game 11. Walker is back for Game 12 through the rest of the season.

Calgary K

Harold Hallman is the starter for all but Game 18, where Dave Ponder gives him a rest before the playoffs. Hallman is back for the playoffs.

Calgary L

Stu Laird starts the season here, and John Coflin gets the start in Game 5 due to Laird being injured. Eugene Belliveau gets back into the lineup, this time at L in Game 7. Stu Laird returns to the lineup for Game 8. Dave Ponder plays here for Game 15. Laird is back again for Game 16.

Calgary F

Alvis Satele starts the season here. Brian Pillman replaced the injured Satele for Game 3. Eric Emery replaced Pillman for Game 6. Eric Emery was sent to the practice roster for game 10, and Satele slots back in. Garret Doll starts in Game 11 due to a ratio shakeup. Once Doll takes over, Mike Emery is signed to be the backup Canadian linebacker, and Emery gets the Game 18 start to rest Doll before the playoffs. Alvis Satele starts the first playoff game.

Calgary G

Eric Emery starts the season here, with Bernie Morrison hurt. Morrison is back for Game 3.

Calgary H

Anthony Woodson starts the season, and goes out for injury in Game 14, where Alvis Satele fills in. Woodson regained his spot in Game 17 when Satele went down to injury himself.

Calgary C

Greg Peterson is the starter. Richie Hall scoots over from D to start Game 14 due to injury. Peterson is back for Game 15.

Calgary D

Kenneth Miller starts the season, but doesn't last long. Richie Hall is in place by Game 3. Hall moves over to C for Game 14 and Robert Turner plays in his place. Hall is back for Game 15.

Appendix E – Edmonton Roster

The secondary had a lot of player movement all season. This may not be entirely on point, but is the easiest way to handle things.

Edmonton A

Gary Thompson started the first 10 games. Jeff George takes over for game 11, and then Greg Harding takes over for the rest of the way.

Edmonton B

James Bell suffers a life-altering injury in Game 11, and Jeff George takes over going forward.

Edmonton C

Laurent DesLauriers is out for games 7 through 9, and then is out for the season after Game 12. Jeff Volpe stepped in as the starter for games 7 through 9, and then again from Game 13 to Game 16. Phil Jones takes over from Game 17 onwards.

Edmonton D

Cliff Toney plays the first four games, then is hurt and Mark Jackson takes over. Greg Harding plays game 10 and 11, and Toney returns for game 12 going forward.

Edmonton F & I

Stew Hill starts at F for the first five games, and Andre Pinesett starts at I. Frank Balkovec takes over at F for Game 6 and Hill moves down to I.

Edmonton H

Craig Shaffer misses Games 2 through 4, with Frank Balkovec replacing him.

Edmonton TA & GB

Hec Pothier is suspended for the season after Game 16, Leo Blanchard takes over this slot and Kurt Chapman takes over GB. Your choice if you leave Blanchard in his slot and simply put Chapman in at TA.

Edmonton EA

Stephen Jones is replaced by Waymon Aldridge for Game 6. Jones sits a meaningless Game 18, and Gizmo Williams starts.

Edmonton SB

Rick House is out for games 14 through 16, replaced by Tom Richards. House also sits out a meaningless Game 18.

Edmonton QB

Matt Dunigan starts all season except for a meaningless Game 18, where Damon Allen got the call.

Appendix H – Hamilton Roster

Hamilton QB

Ken Hobart started the first six games, but was replaced by Mike Kerrigan in Game 2 and Game 4. Kerrigan took over as the starter after this. Hobart relieved Kerrigan quite often, but Hobart's relief efforts tended to be short lived, as he seemed to be used primarily on short yardage situations after he lost the starting job.

Hamilton RB

Johnny Shepherd appears to have been the starter for the first two games. Walter Bender took over for Game 3, and besides Game 13, which Ken Zachary started, Bender had the job through Game 15. Zachary started Games 16 through 18, and then Bender was back for the playoffs.

Hamilton FB

Dave Graffi starts the season. Jed Tommy replaces him as starter after Game 4. Tommy misses Game 10, and Dan Huclack replaces him as the starter for that game.

Hamilton EA

Tony Champion starts here. When Ron Ingram is in the lineup at SB, you can swap them or leave them alone, your choice, as Ingram plays outside in this scenario and Champion plays inside, or you can opt for simplicity and leave things as is on the team sheet.

Hamilton SA

Rocky DiPietro misses the first two games. Steve Jackson starts in his place. DiPietro returns for the rest of the season.

Hamilton SB

Ron Ingram starts the first four games. Wayne Lee takes over for Game 5. Ingram is back for Game 6. Wayne Lee replaces him for the rest of the season until the second playoff game, when Ingram returns.

Hamilton EB

Steve Stapler plays every game except Game 2. Don Newman appears to get the start.

Hamilton A

Gerald Bess starts the first two games. Lance Shields takes over for Game 3. Calvin Adams gets the start in Games 5 through 8 in place of Shields. Shields returns for the rest of the season.

Hamilton E

Less Browne starts here, except Game 3, which Calvin Adams covers. Jim Rockford starts his first Canadian professional games in playoffs as well as the Grey Cup, with a 1/1 rating.

Hamilton F

Greg Gary starts the first 5 games. Frank Robinson takes over for Game 6.

Hamilton G

Ben Zambiasi misses games 11 and 12. Greg Gary replaces him for those two games.

Hamilton I

Rod Skillman is the usual starter. Leon Lyszkiewicz starts the games 3 and 4. Skillman is benched for the second playoff game and the Grey Cup by David Sauve (2/2, to reflect their large comeback in the second leg of the East Final and their dominance in the Grey Cup).

Hamilton K

Mitchell Price is out for Game 5 and 6, and is replaced by Romel Andrews for Game 5 and Mark Napiorkowski for Game 6.

Hamilton L

Grover Covington misses Game 1. My guess is that Leon Lyszkiewicz takes his place, but I can't confirm that. Covington is back for Game 2. Romel Andrews plays Game 7 and 8. Covington is back for Game 9.

Hamilton Kicking/Punting

Bernie Ruoff is the kicker and punter until he suffers an injury in game 9. Dan Huclack is the emergency kicker that day, and Steve Stapler takes over the punting. Paul Osbaldiston is the kicker after Game 9, and Steve Stapler usually punts. Osbaldiston punts infrequently, but gets the job for the second leg of the East Final.

Appendix M – Montreal Roster

Montreal underwent wholesale changes throughout the 1986 season, which is not entirely unexpected for a 4-14 team that's hemorrhaging money to go through. Whether you are playing as Montreal or just facing them in a single team replay, you can either opt to simply use the listed starters and the finder charts, as the players listed as starters at the RB, SB, and EB positions all had the most touches at that slot, but if you're like me and like to go deep into the weeds, here's some help:

Let's start with the quarterbacks. Joe Barnes started week one, promptly threw 5 interceptions, 4 to the same Ottawa Rough Rider, but got the start in week two before being benched at halftime for Brian Ransom. Ransom took over the starting job in game 3 against BC after a Montreal bye week. Barnes would see a little action in relief for the next few weeks amounting to around 20 passes. The signing of Walter Lewis after Game 7 led to the release of Joe Barnes. Mark Stevens got his only extensive action in Game 8, replacing Brian Ransom after Ransom threw 5 interceptions, and was then released as Steve Calabria was signed (Calabria never threw a pass for Montreal). Lewis was pushed into the starting role for Game 9. Brian Ransom was back as the starter for Game 13, as Lewis was injured punting in game 12. Yes, you read that right. Lewis came back as a sub in Game 16 and Game 17,

The running back position was also up in the air all season. Alan Reid started week one, alongside Dan Huclack at FB. Tony Johns was out with an injury. Simply use Johns' finder chart for Huclack if you decide to go this route. This situation carried over to week 2. Huclack was dropped in a shakeup after week 2 and Johns returned. Reid was replaced after game 7 during a massive shakeup related to the signing of former USFL players that had been cut loose when the league suspended operations earlier in the month. Harry Sydney replaced Reid. Shawn Faulkner replaced Sydney in Game 12. Ricky Porter got the nod for Game 14. Faulkner got his starting job back for Game 15 because Porter suffered a knee injury after a good game against Saskatchewan.

Slot EA contains James Hood, and Slot SA contains Jacques Chapdelaine. The other two receiving slots, SB and EB, were complete disasters.

SB position had Kerry Taylor start in week one, and he was released in the same shakeup after week 7 that Barnes and Reid succumbed to. Gill Stegall (Slot EB) replaced Taylor for game 8, and then Scott Fitzkee replaced Stegall for Game 9. Ray Caissie started at SB with Fitzkee bumped out to EB for Game 11. It's less than clear, but I believe Gerald Alphin took over this spot in Game 13, and for sure had it by Game 14.

EB position was even more of a mess, with no one even coming close to having half the starts at the slot. My understanding is that Jacques Chapdelaine from box SA was the EB receiver the first two weeks while Mike McTague was the inside slot back in SA, but putting McTague at EB for the first two weeks wouldn't hurt anything and would keep things simpler. Their pass/run points both match what is in place for the EB slot on the chart, so it's completely your call how you handle this. Steve Bird is next up at the position for game 3 against BC. Bird was replaced in the Game 8 shakeup by Mike Fields for one game (who is listed in the bottom of the EA slot with an EB notation), and then Gerald Bradley took over the EB slot for Game 9. Scott Fitzkee replaced Bradley for game 11, as he was bumped out of the SB slot for Canadian Ray Caissie so Caissie could start due to the ratio and continued roster shuffling. Fitzkee was released after game 12, and Gill Stegall took his place for Game 13.

The kicking game was also in flux.

Roy Kurtz was the starting kicker week one, and kept the job until he was hurt in game 12 against Winnipeg. Rick Ryan took over as the placekicker. Veteran Zenon Andrusyshyn was picked up for Game 13 for both kicking roles.

Mike McTague punted for the first two games, but lost his punting job in the second quarter of game 2 after a block and a low average. McTague was subsequently released and signed with Saskatchewan. Roy Kurtz took over for the rest of the game, and continued both duties until his injury in game 12. Walter Lewis punted for him after the injury. Veteran Zenon Andrusyshyn was picked up for Game 13 for both kicking roles.

The offensive line was also somewhat of a mess, but I've done my best at placing the players that were considered starters on the line, and the ratings for the starters reflect how the team performed. The defense escaped most of the chaos. They had injuries here and there, but nothing all that notable. You can easily play with simply the starters listed on the game charts and not miss much of anything. Paul Gray started the first two games at G and William Mitchell started the first two games at F before Gray went down for the season, resulting in Mitchell moving to G and Ken Ciancone starting at F I've rated all three players the same, so it's not going to make a difference whether you pay attention to this little note or not.

Appendix O – Ottawa Roster

Ottawa QB's

Game 1 Watts (Burgess Relief)
Game 2 Watts
Game 3 Watts (Burgess & Renfroe Relief)
Game 4 Watts (Burgess Relief)
Game 5 Burgess (Watts Relief)
Game 6 Burgess (Watts Relief)
Game 7 Burgess (Dillon Relief)
Game 8 Burgess (Dillon Relief)
Game 9 Dillon (Burgess Relief)
Game 10 Dillon (Burgess Relief)
Game 11 Burgess (Renfroe Relief)
Game 12 Renfroe
Game 13 Renfroe (Dillon Relief)
Game 14 Renfroe
Game 15 Renfroe (Dillon Relief)
Game 16 Dillon
Game 17 Burgess (Renfroe Relief)
Game 18 Dillon

Switches early in the season seemed to come at or around half. Watts was released after week 6, and after that, in game quarterback changes came fast and furious, sometimes even reverting back to the starter until Renfroe was installed in week 11. Head Coach Joe Moss was fired after Game 13, and after Game 15, out of the playoff hunt, interim coach Tom Dimitroff went into evaluation mode.

Ottawa RB

Lester Brown starts the season. Robert Reid took over for Game 9. Brown returns for Game 10. Reid gets the start in Game 11, and continues for the rest of the season.

Ottawa SA

Mark Barousse opens up here, and is replaced by Mike Caterbone for Game 8 due to injury. Barousse returns for Game 9. Brad Calip plays Game 11 and Game 12. Barousse is back for Game 13. Barousse also misses Game 18, replaced by Clorindo Grilli.

Ottawa SB

Stew Fraser seems to get the opening day nod, but Mike Hudson takes over for Game 2. Robert Reid (RB) gets the start for Game 5. Hudson seems to get the start in Game 6, and Clorindo Grilli gets the start in Game 7. Brad Calip starts Game 9. Grilli returns for Game 10. Mike Hudson takes over again for Game 14 and beyond.

Ottawa EB

Reggie Butts gets the call on opening day, and is replaced by Kelley Johnson for Game 9. Butts returns for Game 10, and Johnson is back for Game 11. Butts gets back for Game 12, but is out again for Game 13. Brad Calip appears to be his replacement. Kelley Johnson got the start for Game 15 and 16. Calip starts Game 17 and 18.

Ottawa GA

Nick Benjamin starts the season. Benjamin was injured in Game 10, and Brad Fawcett took over.

Ottawa CE

Gerry Hornett wins the job for opening day, and Billy Kidd takes over for Game 11.

Ottawa GB

Pieter Vanden Bos starts the season. He is replaced for Game 13 after an injury, and I believe it's Jerry Dobrovolny.

Ottawa A

Ricky Barden starts the first 7 games, then shifts to C for Game 8. Aaron Hill gets the spot start for Game 8. Calvin Loveall took over for Game 9.

Ottawa B

Chris Sigler starts the season, but missed Game 3 due to a hamstring pull. Rodney Moore replaced him, and then Sigler returned for Game 4. Treg Songy replaces Sigler for Game 6. Sigler is back for Game 9. Songy slots back in for Game 10. Sigler plays Game 11 when Songy had to be shifted to E at the last minute. Songy returns for Game 12. Songy was benched for Game 13 and then released, but his replacement was not noted, but may have been Jerome Erdman. Dale Thompson starts Game 14 and Wylie Turner starts Game 15. Will Lewis finishes up starting with Game 16.

Ottawa C

Phil Jones starts the season. Chris Sigler replaces him in Game 7. Ricky Barden gets the start for Game 8. Jones returns for Game 9. Sigler ends up here for Game 10. Mike McIntyre took over for Game 11. Wylie Turner starts Game 18.

Ottawa D

Lamont Meacham seems to have started the season here. Dennis Clay took over for Game 9 after being received in a trade. Gerald Bess, cut earlier in the year by Hamilton, plays Game 18 (1-0)

Ottawa E

Darryl Hall starts the season, and plays all but Game 11. Treg Songy filled in.

Ottawa F

Al Washington is the opening day starter, and Henry Taylor replaces him in Game 6. Steve Harrison replaces Taylor for Game 7. Craig Walls gets the Game 9 start. Marty Palazeti starts Game 10 in a ratio shuffle. Walls is back for Game 11. Steve Harrison steps in for Game 16. Alex Troop starts Game 17. Steve Harrison finishes up.

Ottawa G

Darrell Nicholson starts opening day, and then is released after Game 6. Al Washington gets the start for Game 7. Henry Taylor takes over for Game 8.

Ottawa H

Rick Sowieta is the starter. Steve Harrison starts for Sowieta in Game 5 and 6. Sowieta returns for Game 7. Harrison plays Game 13. Sowieta returns after that.

Ottawa I

Greg Marshall is the starter. Jeff Roberts fills in for Game 4 and 5 due to an injury to Marshall. Marshall returns for Game 6.

Ottawa J

Loyd Lewis is the starter, and only misses Game 18. Tony Fitzpatrick fills in.

Ottawa K

Ron Engleson gets the opening day start due to an injury to Michel Bourgeau. Bourgeau returns for Game 2. Engleson gets the start for Game 7. This position isn't mentioned much at all for the rest of the season. I'd say it's more than likely that Bourgeau started the rest of the season.

Ottawa L

Jeff Roberts started the opener but left with an injury. James Curry takes over for Game 2. Jeff Roberts takes over in Game 10, but loses his spot for Game 11 to Tony Fitzpatrick. Roberts returns for Game 12. Fitzpatrick is a go for Game 13. Mike Cline takes over in Game 14.

Appendix S – Saskatchewan Roster

Saskatchewan QB

Joe Paopao started for the first four games, being relieved by Harold Smith in the second and fourth games. Smith stops showing up after Game 4, and Bernard Quarles appears to become the starter going forward, except games 9 and 10, which were Paopao starts. Paopao frequently relieves Quarles, and often plays the majority of the game. Mike Kelley made a few relief appearances after Saskatchewan was eliminated from the playoffs. The only games Quarles went start to finish in were Game 5 and Game 12.

Saskatchewan RB

Bobby Johnson starts the first two games, and Tim McCray takes over for Game 3. Johnson is back for Game 4. Tim McCray becomes the main back in Game 15 after Johnson suffers an injury.

Saskatchewan FB

David Conrad and Denny Ferdinand rotate at this position, and it's not clear who starts and who sits any given week. The finder charts should help portion out the carries. Tim McCray fills in for Ferdinand in Game 4. Ferdinand is back for Game 5, and McCray goes off the active roster. David Conrad misses Game 13. McCray once again slots in to replace the injured FB. The team only dresses 3 backs at a time, and unless one of the FB's is out, only one of the RB's dresses.

Saskatchewan EA

Mike Elarms starts the first 11 games. Ron Brown starts Game 12. Elarms returns for Game 15. Ron Brown plays Game 17. Tron Armstrong starts Game 18.

Saskatchewan SA

Ray Elgaard starts, and only misses Game 12 due to injury. Mike McTague starts that game. Elgaard returns for Game 13.

Saskatchewan SB

Tony Dennis starts the first 8 games, and then Mike McTague replaces him for games 9 and 10. Dennis returns for Game 11.

Mike McTague becomes the primary backup option at both S slots in Game 5.

Saskatchewan EB

Daric Zeno starts the opener, and then gives way to Jeff Patterson for Games 2 through 4. Zeno returns for Game 5.

Saskatchewan GB

Neil Quilter starts the first seven games, and then is injured and replaced by Scott Redl for Game 8. Quilter returns for Game 9. Redl starts again in Game 12. Quilter is back for Game 13. Redl returns in Game 14 with Quilter out for the season.

Saskatchewan TB

Vic Stevenson starts the first seven games, and then is injured and replaced by Ken Moore for Game 8. Moore goes down in Game 11 and Jeff Inglis is dealt for and starts on short notice in Game 12. Bryan Illerbrun takes over for Game 14.

Saskatchewan A

Trent Bryant starts the first 13 games, and then Harry Skipper replaces him for Game 14. Bryant returns for Game 15.

Saskatchewan B

Eddie Ray Walker starts the season, but is made the backup for Game 2 due to injuries and Tony Staten starts. Walker returns for Game 3. Mike McGruder is bumped inside from A for Game 14. Walker returns for Game 15.

Saskatchewan C

Glen Suitor starts the first 13 games. Eddie Ray Walker is bumped inside from B in a chain reaction to get Harry Skipper in the lineup at A for Game 14. Suitor returns for Game 15.

Saskatchewan D

Fran McDermott starts the first 10 games, and then Joe Fuller replaced an injured McDermott in Game 11. Tony Slaton appears to have taken over for Game 15 and beyond.

Saskatchewan E

Mike McGruder starts the first 14 games. Harry Skipper replaces him for the final four due to injury.

Saskatchewan G

Gary Moten begins the season as the starter. He's out for Game 4, and Eddie Lowe takes his place from H. Moten returns for Game 5. David Albright takes over in game 11.

Saskatchewan H

Eddie Lowe starts here, and moves to G for Game 4 due to injuries. He is replaced in Game 4 by James Hunter (or play Hunter at G and leave Lowe here, either way works). Lowe returns for Game 5.

Saskatchewan I

Nick Hebler is the main starter, but James Walker gets the opening day start. Hebler is in place for Game 2.

Saskatchewan K

Rick Goltz plays all 18 games. Al Johns gets the start in Games 4 and 5, but Johns and Goltz rotate often to keep fresh legs on the field.

Saskatchewan L

John Gonzalez starts the season here. James Walker starts Game 2 and Game 3, but is then released, and Gonzalez takes the job back for Game 4. Bobby Jurasin starts Game 8. Steve Wilburn takes a turn for Games 9 and 10. Scott Virkus becomes the starter in Game 11. Bobby Jurasin takes the slot in Game 16.

Saskatchewan Punters

Gerry McGrath started the season as the punter, but Mike McTague took over in Game 8. Stan Gelbaugh was brought in to be quarterback help but ended up the team's punter in Game 9, and kept the job until McTague took the job back in Game 14.

Game 12-15 Minter
Game 16-Game 18 Miller
Playoff Game 1 Minter
Playoff Game 2 Miller

Toronto EA

Chris Woods starts the first three games, and then is injured. Curtland Thomas takes over for Game 4. Woods returns for Game 5.

Toronto SB

Steve Cox started the season and played the first four games. Darrell (DK) Smith appears to have started games 5 through 8. Cox returns for Game 9. Smith regains his slot in Game 11. Joker Phillips plays Game 17. Smith is back for Game 18.

Toronto EB

Ken Joiner starts the first four games. Curtland Thomas starts Game 5 through 7. Steve Cox played here for Game 8. Joiner returns for Game 9. Keith Baker starts Game 12. Cox returns for Game 13. Joiner is back for Game 14. Baker returns for Game 18.

Toronto TA

Jeff Inglis started the first 11 games. Chris Schultz took over for Game 12 and beyond.

Toronto CE

Willie Thomas starts all but Game 17 and 18. Dan Petschenig plays Game 17, and Mark Napolitan (0/1-) plays Game 18. Thomas returns for the playoffs.

Toronto GB

Tony Antunovic (0/1-) starts game 1 and is knocked out for the season. Jeff Arp replaces him for Game 2. Dan Petschenig settles in for Game 6. Dave Kirzinger takes over for Game 8. Kirzinger is out for Game 15 through 17, and Petschenig replaces him for Game 15 and 16, and Jim Kardash (0/1-) replaces him for Game 17. Petschenig is back for Game 18.

Toronto TB

Kevin Pruenster missed game 5. Dan Petschenig filled in.

Toronto A

Carl Brazley starts the first six games. Kerry Parker plays A in Game 7 as Brazley shifts to B. Brazley comes back to A in Game 14.

Toronto B

Darrell Wilson plays the first six games. Carl Brazley shifts over from A to cover for an injury to Wilson for Game 7. Brazley shifts back to A for Game 14. I believe Wilson slots back in, and his games played totals match, but I never was able to find full confirmation to that.

Toronto C

Jerry Nash starts the first five games. Cliff Hewitt takes over for Game 6. Paul Tripoli takes over for Game 8. Hewitt plays C for Game 11. It gets fuzzy after that. Playing Tripoli here from Game 12 through Game 14 would make sense. Jerry Nash returns for Game 15. Tripoli plays game 16 and 17, and Cliff Hewitt plays Game 18.

Toronto D

Dennis Clay plays the first 7 games. Cliff Hewitt takes over for Game 8. Darrell Wilson subs in for Game 11. Hewitt seems to get the lion's share of the playing time after this, but I don't have a lot of substance as to which games beyond this.

Toronto E

Marcellus Greene starts the first 13 games. Kerry Parker replaces him in Game 14.

Toronto F

Willie Pless starts the first 11 games. Gary Moten replaces him for Games 12 through 17. Pless is back for Game 18 and beyond.

Toronto K

Brad Fojtik starts the season. Jearld Baylis takes over in Game 8. Doug Mikolas plays here for Game 9 through 11. Baylis takes over from Game 12 on.

Toronto L

Marlon Jones starts the first three games, and is then injured. Darryl Goodlow starts Game 4. Marlon Jones returns for Game 8.

Appendix W – Winnipeg Roster*Winnipeg QB

Clements starts the season, and is injured for the season in game 9. John Hufnagel took over the starting job. Jim Zorn was added to the roster at this time.

Winnipeg RB

Willard Reaves started the season, and then was injured for the season in game 6. James Sykes took over for the next seven games, and then Lester Brown was brought in for Game 14 through the end of the regular season. Reaves returns for the playoffs.

Winnipeg FB

Pat Cantner is the starter, but Sean Kehoe gets plenty of playing time, especially in the passing game.

Winnipeg SB

Jerome Erdman was traded away after game 11, and Jeff Boyd took over as the starter as he was added to the roster from NFL training camp after the trade. If you want to, you can swap Boyd for Tuttle in the EB slot.

Winnipeg TA

Richard Nemeth starts the first four games, and is replaced by Mike Hameluck for Game 5, but this didn't seem to stick, and Nemeth is back in the lineup for sure by Game 9.

Winnipeg A

Roy Bennett starts the first 17 games, and is replaced by Lyndell Jones for Game 18. Bennett returns for the playoffs.

Winnipeg B

Wylie Turner starts the first three games, and is replaced by James Jefferson for Game 4. Turner is back for game 5. Jefferson starts again in Game 6. Turner is back again in Game 7. Bennie Thompson replaces an injured Turner in Game 10.

Winnipeg E

David Shaw starts the season, and is replaced by James Jefferson in Game 5. Shaw returns for Game 6. Jefferson takes over again for Game 8.

Winnipeg G

Darrell Patterson plays the entire regular season, but can't get over injuries for the playoff game. Tracey Mack takes over.

Winnipeg I

Tyrone Jones starts the first 8 games, and is replaced by Tracey Mack for Game 9. Jones is back for Game 11.

Winnipeg J

Tony Norman starts the season, and plays the first three games. John Sturdivant replaces him in Game 4. Norman returns for Game 17 and 18. Sturdivant returns for the playoffs.

Winnipeg L

Hasson Arbubakrr starts until game 12, when Rob Prodanovic takes his place in a ratio shakeup. Arbubakrr played game 13, but was injured, and replaced by Bob Molle for Game 14.

Kicking

Trevor Kennerd was the starting kicker. He was injured on the opening kickoff of game 4 (where he recovered his own onside kick), and Joe Poplawski took over the placekicking for that game, with Randy Fabi handling kickoffs. Game 5 through 9 had Paul Osbaldiston handling the kicking, and then Poplawski was given the job for Games 10 and 11. Kennerd would take over in Game 12 for the rest of the season.
