

2018 Fall Classic Cards • HISTORY MAKER BASEBALL Big League Baseball Game

Let's keep this short and sweet! Just a couple things before you begin playing...

Rosters. Post-season rosters for baseball are a funny thing. Some guys played a lot, and didn't get included on the roster. EXAMPLE: Daniel Hudson pitched 46 innings over 40 games for Los Angeles, didn't make the WS roster; Julio Urias pitched four innings over three games, and did. In any case, we will let YOU make the roster decisions. Each team includes all players on the actual WS roster, plus all players (like Hudson) who made a significant contribution to the team's season.

Umpires. We've included all seven umpires, even though there are only four umpire slots called for by the game charts. Umpires are rated same as the players, based on numbers through August 11th. You'll notice that this year there's an overall lack of qualities. Perhaps they were chosen because of their consistently middle-of-the-road, even-handed performance. In any case, when an umpire has no qualities, it's just like a player with no qualities: you'll always answer "no" to whatever quality the game book asks for.
